Dear Mr. Ginsberg:

The Federal Election Commission has the statutory duty of enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and Chapters 95 and 96 of Title 26, United States Code. The Commission has issued the attached subpoena which requires your client Jeb Hensarling to appear and give sworn testimony in connection with MUR 3774, which involves certain payments by the National Republican Senatorial Committee to non-profit groups. Notice is hereby given that the deposition is to be taken on Wednesday, May 14, 1997 at the time and place indicated in the enclosed subpoena. The Commission does not consider your client a respondent in this matter at this time, but rather a witness only.

Because this information is being sought as part of an investigation being conducted by the Commission, the confidentiality provision of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A) applies. That section prohibits making public any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. Your client is advised that no such consent has been given in this case.

Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 111.14, a witness summoned by the Commission shall be paid $40.00 plus travel costs. Subsequent to the deposition, you will be sent a check for the witness fee and travel costs.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 219-3690.
